Amend the Dublin Police Act, 1837, and other enactments - A.D. 1911.
relating to the Police District of Dublin Metropolis.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 5 1. The boundary of the police district of Dublin Metropolis is hereby extended so as to comprise, in addition to the existing area thereof, all that area lying between the existing boundary of the said district and a direct line drawn from the centre of the bridge which carries the public road from Dollymount to 10 Raheny over the river Naniken to the most northerly point of the Clontarf Bank (the said point being two thousand five hundred yards or thereabouts distant from the said bridge and one thousand two hundred and eighty yards or thereabouts due south from Old Kilbarrack Church) and a direct line drawn 15 from the said point to the Poolbeg Lighthouse.

Extension of Dublin police district boundary.

2. Upon any information or complaint laid or made before a divisional justice of the police district of Dublin Metropolis of an offence punishable on summary conviction, if the person charged resides within the limits of that district, the justice
20 shall, notwithstanding that the offence has been, or is alleged to have been, committed outside those limits, have all the like powers, jurisdiction, and authority as he has upon an information or complaint laid or made of a like offence committed or alleged to have been committed within the limits of that district.

Extension of jurisdiction of Dublin divisional justices.
